10 Simple Steps: Ordering Additional Genetic Analyses in CentoPortal®

Add-on requests are available for physicians who wish to conduct an additional genetic analysis for a patient whose sample we have already received.

Please note: the patient details must exist in the physicians address book. To order the add-on service, follow the steps below:

1. Log In to CentoPortal® account

2. Select the additional genetic test

3. Select patient details from address book

4. Enter patient's clinical details from CENTOGENE's HPO (Human Phenotype Ontology) database using the search function

5. Select the add-on tick-box in the 'Sample Detail' section, and click 'Save & Continue'

6. If requested, an additional report recipient can be added in the 'Report Details' section

7. Review billing details, and click 'Save & Continue'

8. Complete the consent form as instructed, and review the order before submission

9. The order process is now completed. Orders can be viewed in 'My Orders'

10. The analysis status and medical report, once the analysis is completed, can be viewed in CentoPortal®
